

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, after 45 years of dedicated service, Mr. Garry Dlouhy is retiring as Senior Operations Manager of the Pembina Redwater Fractionation Site; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Dlouhy has provided Pembina RFS and the community with 45 years of continued service, having been a full-time employee since his initial hire; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Dlouhy moved to the Sturgeon County region to become the superintendent of Procor's Redwater LNG Storage Facility in 1985 and has been a pillar of the community ever since; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Dlouhy has supported Sturgeon County in numerous community investment and community engagement activities; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Dlouhy has "steered the ship" through numerous stages of growth and development of the Pembina RFS facility, the largest NGL facility in Canada and the fourth largest NGL facility in North America; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Dlouhy's contributions have helped Pembina RFS expand from an 11-person, $20 million operation to a thriving, world class 200-plus person, $3 billion operation; and

WHEREAS, under Mr. Dlouhy's leadership, every employee at Pembina RFS is challenged and guided to become the best at what they do; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Dlouhy has carried his title as Senior Operations Manager with pride, evident to anyone who has spoken to him about the facility;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Alanna Hnatiw, Mayor of Sturgeon County, do hereby proclaim Range Road 220 South as Dlouhy Road, and urge my fellow citizens to recognize the significant and long-standing contributions Mr. Dlouhy has made to Pembina RFS, the surrounding community and the Sturgeon County region.

Alanna Hnatiw
Mayor, Sturgeon County
