To Sturgeon County Council

I would like kindly request that you waive the Penalty Fee (if any) for my delay re: 2021 Tax payment for tax roll # 1480064 and 1480065

I paid my tax 9 days after the due day (on July 09, 21) due to miscommunication with the staff person - Layne Quickstart.

I called Layne on June 21, 2021 to request e-mail with Tax Statements for the last few years.

(Here I would like to explain that I moved from Alberta to British Columbia and was living during that time in 3 properties) - and I lost my statements.

I email also asked her how ^{much} I need to pay for the 2021 Tax, as I also did not have the statement - have not received it. Layne informed me about the amount and also asked ^{her about the due date} she told me that the due date is on July 31, 2021.

Receiving this information I realized that I had more than 30 days to make the payment. I decided to go to the Bank on July 09, 2021 - (I am 68 years old and due to the Covid 19 I don't go to the Bank often.) I was not aware that the due date is June 30.

Once again please don't apply any penalty due to my delay, as I really rely on the information received from Layne & Staff of Sturgeon County)

I would like to add that I always payed my taxes on time, very often before the due date and for more than 20 years I never delayed with my payments

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Lottens - Wyle
(Elizabeth)
